

The Asian/Pacific Islander Domestic Violence Resource Project (DVRP) Is Recruiting Members for its Board of Directors

The Asian/Pacific Islander Domestic Violence Resource Project (DVRP) is now recruiting proactive Board members committed to ending gender based violence. The Board plays an active role in the governance and leadership of DVRP, enabling DVRP to serve survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault and engage Pan-Asian communities in the DC metro area.

DVRP is a dynamic and growing organization. By joining the DVRP Board, you will be able to: (1) Get to know leaders in the A/PI communities throughout DC, MD and VA; (2) Leverage your leadership skills by contributing to one of our committees and helping DVRP refine its practices and policies; (3) Contribute your expertise, skills, connections and resources to a worthy cause in your own community; (4) Help amplify the voices of some of the most vulnerable in our communities and ensure survivors receive help and support; (5) Utilize and enhance your fundraising skills to help ensure DVRP remains a strong and robust organization.

Board members are expected to do the following:

- Work with the Interim Executive Director (ED)/CEO and Board in developing and implementing DVRP's strategic plan;
- Approve DVRP's annual budget, audit reports, and material business decisions; being informed of, and meeting all, legal and fiduciary responsibilities;
- Commit to raising donations and participating in fundraising to support DVRP's work;
- Partner with the ED/CEO and other Board members to ensure that Board goals are carried out;
- Serve on committees or task forces that support the Board and DVRP's mission and taking on special assignments;
- Assist the ED/CEO and Board in identifying and recruiting other Board members;
- Contribute to an annual performance evaluation of the ED/CEO;
- Represent DVRP to stakeholders and acting as an ambassador for the organization.

Qualifications:

- Professionals in the Washington, DC metropolitan area with approximately 5-10 years of work experience in fundraising, finance, governance, non-profit management, or other professional skills;
- Commit to serving a two-year term (will be eligible for re-appointment for an additional term);
- Passionate in making a difference in the API community, through working to end domestic violence and sexual assault in the Asian/Pacific Islander community.

To apply, please e-mail a resume and cover letter to Human Resources Committee Chair, Katherine Shek (Katherine@dvrp.org).
